Acknowledgement

I want to express my deepest gratitude to various people who have made this work possible. First of all I want to thank my supervisor Professor Dr. Nurul Islam Nazem for guiding me through the work of this thesis, his positive encouragement and his most valuable advice. Furthermore, I would like to thank all the respondents – schools’ authorities, students and their guardians, authorities of the coaching centers and the national level experts for their kind co-operation.

I think if any of us honestly reflects on who we are and how we got here; we discover a debt to others that spans written history. The work of some unknown person makes our lives easier every day. I believe it is appropriate to acknowledge all of these unknown persons; but it is even more necessary to acknowledge those people we know have directly shaped our lives.

I want to thank my family for their inspiration throughout the research and beyond. Family includes for me not only my relatives. My life wouldn’t be what it is without my friends. Thank you for enriching my life with your fellowship.
